NEW GARAGE MAN—Fred Hanson, for the past three years driver for E. J. Bennett, and one of the best automobile mechanics in Phoenix, has taken over the floor automobile repair work department at the O'Neill garage. As formerly, the O'Neill people will give service on Chalmers and Maxwell cars, but Hanson will look after all other repair jobs.

BENNETT OPENS—The Real Bennett Auto Supply Company, as the new concern which has bought out the automobile supply and accessory department of the O'Neill company, is known, is now ready for business. The inventory was completed yesterday and final transfer made. The new concern has retained the agency for the Havoline oil line, and will also operate the Stewart-Warner Speedometer service station.
